WILBERFORCE PREPARING FOR GRID SEASON; "HANK" CORROTHERS ASSISTANT COACH

By "Seck" Simms
WILBERFORCE, O., Sept. 2nd.—It won't be long before the various college teams will be in hard practice prior to the opening of their football season. Wilberforce University, like all other schools, will be marking time to harken the sound of the referee's whistle with that famous shout—"first down, ten yards to go,"—or to receive a penalty for offense, or the ball going over to the opponents for failure to make the required ten yards.

On account of the change of rules, football will more than likely take a different trend this year. Because of the rule on shifts, it is not known what system Wilberforce will use. Howard was able to make its greatest gains last year from it, but what Howard will do this year probably no one knows but Coach Watson and his staff of assistants.

It has been noted that most of the coaches have been off to football schools during the summer and are packing a lot of stuff up their sleeves to turn the tide against their opponents. Of this lot Coach Graves went to Northwestern to take in what he could get and what he has up his sleeves, he can only tell. He more than likely will change the Wilberforce football tactics; who knows? Before he left he sent out letters to last year's men to report before the opening of school, which is Sept. 19th. Letters came back from the players stating that they would be in on time to do or bust. There will be a lot of new faces in the squad, as usual, and good things are hoped of them. Who these men are, the public will be apprised after they are on the grounds.

Wilberforce takes pleasure to announce the employment of Henry "Hank" Corrothers, of Virginia Union and Springfield "Y" College fame, as instructor in Physical Education and assistant to Coach Graves. Looks like all the schools are up and doing, and whatever football will offer this year to Wilberforce will be seen when the contests are over.

The Wilberforce schedule is as follows:

Oct. 1—Lincoln Univ., of Jefferson City, Mo., at Wilberforce.

Oct. 8—Wilberforce at Bluefield Inst., Bluefield, W. Va.

Oct. 15—Wilberforce at Simmons Univ., Louisville, Ky.

Oct. 22—Kentucky State College at Wilberforce.

Oct. 29th—Wilberforce at Knoxville College, Knoxville, Tenn.

Nov. 5—Wilberforce at Howard University, Washington, D. C.

Nov. 12—Wilberforce at Morris Brown Univ., Atlanta, Ga.

Nov. 19—Tennessee State College at Wilberforce.

Nov. 24—Wilberforce vs West Virginia, at Columbus, Ohio.

W. Langford Stops Adams In Sixth Round

(By The Associated Negro Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 2nd.—Wolcott Langford, popular Chicago middleweight, started on his "come-back" series Thursday night by knocking out Farmer Tod Adams of California in the sixth round of their scheduled ten round bout.

Both fighters went into the ring determined to win and from the opening round it was evident that the battle was going to be a thriller. Adams had never been stopped and many claimed that he just could not be kayoed. Langford, however, believed otherwise and he centered his attack upon Adams' mid-section. He continued this for five rounds and in the sixth a pretty combination, a left hook to the ribs and a hard right to the jaw dropped the Californian to the canvas.

Langford, for a while last year was going like a house on fire, stopping Shuffie Callahan, Chief Elkhardt, and other aspiring middleweights. He was considered right in line for a match with Walker when Dave Shade stepped into his path and made him look rather bad. Since then he has fought with indifferent success and Thursday night was the first time that he had looked like Langford of last season.

FISK GRIDIRON SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 11st.—Fisk University's grid team of this season will face what is undoubtedly the hardest schedule in the history of the institution. Atlanta University, in Atlanta, Oct. 22.

Howard University, at home, October 29th.

Tuskegee Institute, in Tuskegee, November 5.

TENNESSEE TO BEGIN ACTION OCT. 1

(By The Associated Negro Press)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 2nd.—Tennessee State Gridiron Warriors will begin practice Saturday, October 1, when Coach Taylor will sound the whistle for the first scrimmage. Most of last year's varsity men will be in the lineup, and with the wealth of prospective material, the 1927 machine should be a winner.

As indication of the task confronting the "Eleven" this fall, one needs only to notice the appearance of such formidable Southern aggregations, as, Simmons College, Rust, Morris Brown, Morehouse, Wilberforce, Knoxville, and Fisk University. The complete schedule follows:

Oct. 22—Simmons, Nashville.

Oct. 29—Rust, Memphis.

Nov. 5—Morris Brown, Nashville.

Nov. 12—Morehouse, Atlanta.

Nov. 19—Wilberforce (pending), Wilberforce.

LAFAYETTE BOY ON BUTLER GRID TEAM

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 2nd.—The two end positions on the 1927 Butler football team are pretty well spoken for in advance by two of the most promising wingmen ever to don a Blue and White uniform. Herman Geisert, regular varsity end last season, and Alonso Watford, sensational Negro end of the freshman team last year, appear to be the best bets for the season.

Geisert although weighing about 172 pounds is one of the cleverest ends in the State. His brilliant line play last season was one of the features of the Bulldog play. Geisert hails from Marshall, Ill., where he served three years on the high school team of that place. He is a phenomenal pass catcher. Alonso Watford, a stubby Negro and appears as a sure starter in the Bulldog lineup this season. He is built from the ground up and although only measuring about 5 feet 8 inches in height, he tips the beams at 184. He has a world of speed and is a deadly tackler. Blue and White fans are predicting a great year for the land. Watford flashed brilliantly for four years on the Jefferson high school team of Lafayette and was twice given all-State mention.

GIANTS STAGE RALLY IN 8TH, BEAT BARONS

(By The Associated Negro Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 2nd.—The Giants staged a rally in the eighth inning of Sunday's game to defeat the Black Barons from Birmingham by a score of 4-3. The rally brought the second victory to the Giants over the hard-hitting South-erners.

The Giants stepped into the lead in the first inning when they pounced on Satchel for an avalanche of hits and 3 runs. This lead was held until the visitor's half of the seventh inning when the Baronnial clan got together and made the score 2-all and sent Powell to the showers.

A Civil War For Fifty Cents

(By The Associated Negro Press)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 2nd.—At the Main Street A. C., famous for the many knockouts on its Saturday programs, a boxer dubbed Ace of Spades was boxing in the first preliminary against a white boy.

The two were slugging toe to toe, and the colored boy especially seemed to be doing his best.

During a lull in the tremendous noise and cheering a gallery-god yelled down, "Hey, there, fight fight. Why don't you fight. You Black Smoke." The colored gladiator stopped flailing, walked over to the ropes and leaning over them gazed up towards the owner of the voice as he yelled back, "Why, you big grave-robbing, whatta you want for 50c—a 'Civil War'?"

GEOHE IS WINNER OVER TUT JACKSON, OUT POINTS OPPONENT, IN 10-ROUND GO

By Charles O'Neal
(By The Associated Negro Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 2nd.—Fighting under the auspices of the Dundee Community Club, "Bill" Goethe, Albany, N. Y., gave Tut Jackson, of Washington Court House, Ohio, as artistic a lacing as one would wish to see. Jackson, playing the ropes in the first round had Goethe baffled, and put him on the floor for a count of nine, and "Bill" clinched until the bell ended the round.

In the second and third rounds, Goethe had the man from Ohio on the run, punishing him with blows to the stomach and chin and clearly outclassed him in fighting. Rushing from his corner in the fourth round, Goethe had "Tut" on the ropes and administered a terrific lacing to his midsection. Jackson, holding the ropes with one hand, and with the other encircled around "Bill's" neck was booted by the crowd and warned by the referee.

The fifth, sixth, and seventh rounds found both men fighting hard, with the edge to Goethe. A series of jabs in the eighth round had Goethe's right eye half closed and bleeding, but his hard uppercuts to Jackson's chin and mouth had the claret streaming down his chest. The ninth round found Tut on the mat from a hard sock on the jaw, but he recuperated quickly and ended the round in good shape.

The last round found both men trying hard for a knockout, standing toe to toe, with caution thrown to the wind. As we see the fight, Jackson has two rounds, Goethe, six, and two even. Goethe weighed 130 pounds and Jackson 132.

The semi-windup between Jackie Moore of New York and "Dummy" Williams of Denver was one of the fastest melees ever seen in Kay-See. Throughout the entire ten rounds both boys stood toe to toe, and battled from one corner to the other. "Dummy" has long been considered the best boy of his weight around these parts; but the experience of Jackie was too much for the local lad, and he won by a clear margin. Both boys weighed 128 pounds.

The only knockout on the evenings program was accomplished by Jack Melo, who knocked his opponent out in the fifth round of the six round contest. Menlo weighing 160 against Martin's 170 cut him to pieces with hard right and left uppercuts to the chin until Martin laid down for the evening.

"Red" Andrews of Oklahoma battered Kid Harvey, a local boy all over the ring in the four round opener. The "Kid" started off well smiling his way through the first round, but after that the gloom on his face replaced the sunshine and he covered up in the succeeding rounds under the beating "Red" gave him, the same as if he was wrapped in a blanket. The Rev. Earl Blackman, (white) refereed all the bouts.

PAN-AFRICAN CONGRESS STUDIES NEGRO PROBLEM

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The 4th Pan-African Congress, ending its sessions here Wednesday night, published a manifesto in the name of its delegates "from 20 American States, from nearly all the West Indies Islands, from Germany, Japan, India, South America, Sierra Leone, Gold Coast, Nigeria, Liberia and South Africa." The manifesto states the following main demands of Negroes throughout the world:

1. A voice in their own government.
2. Native rights to the land and its natural resources.
3. Modern education for all children.
4. The development of Africa for the Africans and not merely for the profit of Europeans.
5. The re-organization of commerce and industry so as to make the main object of capital and labor the welfare of the many rather than the enriching of the few.
6. The treatment of civilized men as civilized despite difference of birth, race or color.

The manifesto further demands the withdrawal of American armed forces from the black Republic of Haiti and the restoration of self-government there; condemns the attempt of white South Africans to monopolize the land belonging to the black-natives; and after touching on African conditions says of conditions in America:

"We believe that the Negroes of the United States should begin the effective use of their political power and that instead of working for a few minor offices or for merely local favors and concessions, they should vote with their eyes fixed upon the international problems of the color line and the national problems which affect the Negro race in the United States."

The manifesto urges the entrance of Negroes into trade unions in this country, and says:

"We urge the white workers of the world to realize that no program of labor uplift can be successfully carried through in Europe or America so long as colored labor is exploited and enslaved and deprived of all political power."

On international affairs the Pan-African Congress expresses itself as desiring freedom and national independence in Egypt, China, and India and the cessation of interference by the United States in Central and South American countries.

Two members of the staff of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Robert Bagnall, Director of Branches, and William Pickens, Field Secretary, served as regular delegates to the Congress. An international committee has been chosen to plan the next session of the Congress two years hence.

Commenting upon the sessions just ended Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, founder of the movement said: "The Fourth Congress with its upwards of 200 delegates was the largest in the series and that it had received the largest amount of carefully catalogued information concerning the peoples of African descent presented to any such session. The international committee chosen to plan the Fifth Pan-African Congress was also going to work out a permanent international organization, said Dr. DuBois.

HOSPITALS FOR NEGROES RATED LOW

CHICAGO, Sept. 2nd.—(Special)—To consider a plan of action to solve the hospital problems confronting the Race in the United States a conference was held at headquarters of the American Hospital Association in Chicago several days ago. In which representatives of the American Medical Association took part. This conference included two colored organizations, which has recently been affiliated with the American Hospital Association, and the National Medical Association.

Investigation reveals, according to the report, that Negroes in the United States receive wretched care in hospitals for the Negro. Dr. M. T. MacEachern, white, associate director of the American College of Surgeons, stated that of about 200 hospitals catering to the care of Race people in the United States, not more than thirty reach the minimum standard requirements of the American College of Surgeons. This, he maintained, is a serious consideration when applied to the actual care of the sick, particularly in reference to early inaccurate diagnosis and the lack of scientific treatment.

"Poor hospital service reflects itself in high mortalities, chronic invalidism and high average days' stay in hospitals," said Dr. MacEachern. "We boast of the modern hospital as a natural part of the social and economic life of the American people. Why, therefore, should these conditions be permitted to exist in hospitals for the Negro?"

That the great national organizations leading the world today in hospital and medical progress, the American Hospital Association, the American College of Surgeons and the American Medical Association, with the co-operation of hospitals and the community, would rectify the conditions, was predicted by Dr. MacEachern.

When every hospital for the Negro is brought up to the minimum Negro requirements of physical facilities, organization and service, the colored people will have what they are justly entitled to, he said.

BRITISH FIND SLAVERY IN THE EMPIRE

LONDON, Sept. 2nd.—The Supreme Court of Sierra Leone, little Negro court, under the protection of Britain in a judgment announced recently quashed the conviction of slave owners on charges of assault and conspiracy. The decision brought to the public the fact that slavery still exists within the empire.

In quashing the conviction the Court declared the law had always intended slave holding in the protectorate should die out. The Sierra Leone protectorate, adjoining Liberia, was proclaimed in 1896, at which time slavery was an established custom there. Official action since then has inclined toward the elimination of slavery. Last year it was decreed that children of slaves should be free and that slaves would become free upon their masters' death.

The Manchester Guardian, commenting editorially on the matter, says the Court's decision will give new prestige and power to slavery as an institution. "The League of Nations is engaged in suppressing slavery," the editorial says. "With what face could we take our share in that task if we have on our conscience such a crime against freedom as this?"

Cool Headed Officer Averts Lynching

(By the Associated Negro Press) RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 2nd.—Had it not been for the cool-headedness of Deputy Sheriff Clyde Whitaker, North Carolina would have had another lynching charged against it by this time. A posse in search of Albert Spencer, who had killed a Negro settlement here, shot at officers and thereby gained the reputation of being a "bad man," captured the fugitive near here, and was bent upon taking him dead instead of alive when the officer stepped in front of them and protected his prisoner.

Spencer was running away from the posse when he was captured and many declaring him to be a "bad man" wanted to shoot him while in flight, but Whitaker held them in check while he overtook the fugitive single-handed and placed him under arrest. Spencer surrendered to the officer without any trouble and was much relieved when he was informed that he was amply protected.

FLOGGERS HELD FOR MURDER

LINDEN, Ala., Sept. 2nd.—Preliminary hearings held in the death of Jim Greathouse, who died 24 days after he had been horribly beaten with a knotted rope, resulted Thursday in three white men being held without bond on first degree murder charges while a fourth was granted $1,000 bond by agreement of the attorneys for the prosecution and defense.

Chas. Ray W. T. Phillips and Rennie Phillips were held without bond, while George Glass was allowed to make bond for $1,000 to insure his appearance before the Grand Jury.

Assistant Attorney General John J. Haynes conducted the state's case, and said that the full force of the attorney general's office would be thrown into the further prosecution.

Greathouse was flogged on July 8th, and died on Aug. 1st. He was a farm hand, at the time employed by the Costello Construction Company.

LOUISVILLE HAS KIP AND ALICE CASE

(By The Associated Negro Press) LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 2nd.—Louisville promises to have a case similar to the Kip Rhineland case. Alice Rhineland, Mrs. William Bell, a prominent woman of the race, who was married to William Bell (white) former U. S. Deputy Sheriff, Night Police Chief and prominent Republican politician in Cincinnati some years ago is now suing her husband for a divorce and alimony for her child. Mrs. Bell resides in Chicago, but the suit was brought in the courts of Louisville.

This case is attracting great attention on account of both parties being so well known. Bell declares that he was never married to Mrs. Bell and that he was not the father of her child. Mrs. Bell has a record of the marriage license, aside from substantial proof that she and Bell have lived for many years as husband and wife and that recently on account of Bell's prominent position she was forced to keep their marriage secret. The case will come up in court during the second week in September, and there promises to be some very sensational facts brought out.

I. B. P. O. Elks Close Great Convention

comed the early visitors Sunday.

Headquarters at the Imperial Home in West 129th St., was the busiest spot in the city. Here every committee had its offices and here all delegates who did not know the city, came for assignments.

Monday, many unofficial parades and meetings were held in various parts of the city. Up 7th Avenue and down Lenox Avenue, band after band marched, blaring away for the amusement and to the gratification of all that section of New York commonly called Harlem. Crowds along the streets cheered the bands and clamored for more.

Tuesday, the official opening of the convention saw the delegates here in full strength. Beginning at regular session held in Mother Zion Church, the Grand Lodge began to function in true Wilson style.

Wednesday night the "Million Dollar Ball" at the 349th Infantry Armory attracted the greatest gathering ever seen under that roof. Many dazzling costumes were exhibited to the paraders, for on one could do much dancing in the throng of twenty thousand who had assembled. But Thursday was a different tale. Bringing the battle to New York, J. Finley Wilson again demonstrated his complete mastery of the finer points of politics, when he won a crushing victory over the entire field of opponents. George E. Wibecan's name was given the body. Wibecan, past grand exalted ruler and exalted ruler of Brooklyn Lodge No. 32, was mentioned favorable at the beginning of the contest. Then the name of J. Dalmus Steele was offered. Steele is past exalted ruler of Manhattan Lodge No. 45 and one of the most popular Elks in the city of New York. Here was Wilson's recent adversary. For at the beginning of the sessions, Steele began his fight against Wilson and his administration. No other candidates of importance were named, and finally the Wilson machine got to working. Pandemonium reigned when Wilson's nomination was made. Cheers, indicative of the victory which was to follow, rang through the sacred edifice. The doubly little leader of the anti-laws has all smiles and visions of the victory ahead made him all the more pleasant.

After the first ballot, Wibecan withdrew. This strengthened Wilson's chances, and it was not long after that Steele, seeing his fight was hopeless, left the field entirely to Wilson. The expected support from the Pennsylvania delegations and the Southern delegation failed to materialize and Steele was left without followers. With acclamation, Wilson was named. The great fight was over.

Despite the fact that rumors had it Wilson wanted a change in the offices of secretary and treasurer, both George E. Bates of Newark, and James T. Carter of Richmond were re-elected to their respective offices as secretary and treasurer. The recent sudden death of Carter's only son, James T. Carter, Jr., was in a measure responsible for the report that Carter was tiring of office and wanted to withdraw. But the delegates would have none of it. Other important posts filled, were those of Commissioner of Education, which again went to Hinton Jones, and that of Commissioner of Medical Examinations and Infant Mortality, which was given Dr. Thompson of Kansas City.

C. J. Pickett Succumbs In Washington

Pickett as he was known to his intimates and friends numbered as they were among senators, cabinet members, congressmen, and the laity, was reputed to have had the widest acquaintance among men who had been or were in official life in Washington, than any man there.

Born in Shelby, Missouri, fifty years ago, he was reared in the little city of Quincy, Ill. Col John R. Marshall of Chicago introduced him to Senator Shelby J. Cullom, then the senior senator from Illinois, who made him his messenger, and Pickett moved to Washington to begin a career which in his quiet, modest, but wonderfully efficient way, was to wield a potent influence upon governmental affairs, affecting the real and well fare not alone of his own racial group, but of white America as well.

No man of Negro descent holds office in Congress today, but no member of that body ever more effectively represented his people or watched their interest than did Charles J. Pickett. His thirty years of service in the senate made him such an authority on legislation that many a man whose name the public revers, took counsel from "Charley."

Pickett might have been messenger in name, but in fact, he was a secretary and executive for the men whom he served. For years he was Senator Cullom's right hand. Upon his death it was Pickett who had charge of all his effects and his financial affairs. After Cullom's death he became associated with Congressman Ireland of Indiana, leaving him to join the forces of Senator McKinley of the same State. When that solid died last year, Senator Deneen, the junior member from Illinois, eagerly availed himself of Pickett's services, and when he learned of his death today expressed not only his official regret, but his sincere personal sorrow.

Mr. Pickett was a familiar figure in national campaigns. His wide knowledge of affairs and acquaintance with officials caused Senator John Weeks, in charge of Republican forces, to choose him to be in close touch while in Illinois campaigns he always was in command of activities at headquarters, being imported from Washington to lend his influence and political strategy.

Mr. Pickett died after an operation at Freedman's Hospital, and an illness which he had suffered from intermittently for a year or more. White Men Assail Negro Bricklayer tor. He began work on Tuesday. On Wednesday he was approached by business agents of the bricklayers union who told him he would have to use union men on the job or he would not be allowed to do the work.

Negro bricklayers are not permitted to join the union in Kansas City and so "Hiring union labor" means hiring white labor.

"I have some men here," replied Mr. Allen, "who have been working for me as long as five years. They have families and need work and I'm going to work them."

"You work union men or you don't work at all," the union agents said.

After some more words they went away.

Thursday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock the union agents returned with more of the same talk about hiring union bricklayers. One word passed to another, but one of the white men called Allen a name. The little fracas was soon over, the white business agent being led away nursing marks from some hard blows from Allen. The men on the job backed up their employer but did not find it necessary to help him out.

Mr. Allen said this present job was the smallest one he has handled in four years. He is working five bricklayers and three laborers. Last year he laid a million brick on one job alone—the Troost Arms apartment house and store rooms at 26th St. and Troost Avenue. On that job he worked 45 men. He has been a brick contractor in Kansas City for ten years.
